

2022 JINGART Beijing Update

It is with great regret that we announce the official cancellation of 2022 JINGART offline exhibition due to the impact of COVID-19.

We sincerely appreciate the trust and support of our industry friends and apologize for the impact of force majeure. As the first organization to host three-city art fairs in China, we have never stopped exploring and experimenting with better types of exhibition, and strive to bring you a richly layered and distinctive art fair. This year, the PLATFORM (www.jingart.com.cn/platform/) will open from 30 June to 30 July 2022, presenting a series of selected works from all over the world. Embark on an art journey full of surprises and meet a host of quality exhibitors online.

Whenever you can, be brave enough to express what you love. Wherever you are, try your heart out. We look forward to seeing you all back at Beijing!

About JINGART

Established in 2018, JINGART aims to combine the dynamic culture of Beijing with the international art market. Presenting the best quality art and design of different eras and genres, JINGART builds a diverse platform for local and international exhibitors, collectors, artists and art lovers. JINGART is managed by the team of ART021 Shanghai Contemporary Art Fair and is held in Beijing in May every year.
